1. What is the Alberta Municipal Enforcement Association? The AMEA is a non-profit professional association of municipal enforcement agencies in Alberta serving over 300 members since 1979.

The Association strives to enhance and promote professional conduct and ethics by providing professional development opportunities, training sessions, resource materials and collaborative contacts to municipal enforcement agencies.

2. Who belongs to AMEA? Agencies throughout Alberta from various spheres of municipal enforcement belong to the AMEA. AMEA has 2 basic types of membership.

Regular Member-any person actively appointed as a Municipal Enforcement Officer, Community Peace Officer or Bylaw Officer. This also includes development compliance officers, urban park rangers, parking enforcement officers, animal control officers, waste water control inspectors etc.

Associate Member-any person who is directly involved or actively interested in the objectives of the Association.

3. Why belong to the AMEA? Agencies seeking expertise find AMEA an excellent resource when developing new programs or enhancing their current enforcement programs. We offer our membership:

A platform for municipal agencies to form meaningful professional relationships with other enforcement agencies with similar goals and experiences.

Specialized training opportunities, not available elsewhere, at a reasonable cost.

An annual week long conference with a wide variety of training and networking opportunities. A quarterly newsletter to update members. A website complete with an online Forum.

An employment posting on our website that highlights opportunities province-wide.

A recognition program that includes a Long Service Medal, Outstanding Officer Award and Leadership Awards.

4. Do we offer a variety of courses? We offer a wide variety of courses such as:
