

ALBERTA MUNICIPAL ENFORCEMENT ASSOCIATION

CONFERENCE & TRAINING SEMINAR APRIL 24-28, 2023

Sheraton Cavalier Calgary • 2620 32nd Ave NE • Calgary, AB • T1Y 6B8

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

BYLAW ENFORCEMENT: APPLIED LAW & INVESTIGATIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

MONDAY, APRIL 24-TUESDAY, APRIL 25

Whether new to bylaw enforcement or a veteran officer, this two-day certificate course provides valuable information, insight and skill development.

Led by Darlene Roblin with DKR Consulting, topics include: Comparing CPO 2 and a By-law Officer, law and charter basics, Municipal Government Act, municipal bylaw structure and best practices, provincial tickets/POPA, municipal tags and court preparation.

PERSONAL RISK RECOGNITION & RESPONSE

MONDAY, APRIL 24-TUESDAY, APRIL 25

The earlier we can recognize danger and address it, the greater our chances of not just surviving, but thriving.

Improve your situational awareness through this course, which is broken down into four components: Personal, Environmental, Human Risk, and Application.

Course provided by Tip of Spear Academy.

CANINE HEALTH & EMERGENCY FIRST AID

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

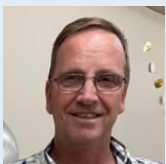

Top canine first aid instructors teach prevention, basic nutrition, exercise and dental care needs, and much more.

You'll practice hands-on emergency scenarios, how to stabilize a dog, and earn a certificate and wallet CPR card. Participants also receive a 130-page health and first aid quick reference manual.

DOG BITE PREVENTION & THREAT MITIGATION

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26

Enforcement Training Academy's bite prevention course is a tested and effective course that offers real world techniques in dealing with nervous or aggressive dogs, covering both bite prevention and full on canine self defense and threat mitigation.

Instructor Jim deBoon just passed his 40th year anniversary of joining the field of bylaw enforcement. He has dealt with hundreds of dog attack scenarios, dealing with aggressive and unpredictable dogs.

CALGARY POLICE SERVICE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26

FRIDAY, APRIL 28

The Community Services Section of the Calgary Police Service houses the Diversity Resources, Indigenous Relations, Police and Crisis, Victim Assistance and Crime Prevention Teams.

Sworn members from these sections will speak about issues such as indigenous relations, gender and sexuality, cultural competency, and mental health to provide information and strategies that law enforcement officers can apply into their everyday practices.

TACTICAL FIRST AID

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Do you know what to do if you, your partner or someone in your care is shot or stabbed? What if they're overdosing on opioids from an accidental exposure? Learn basic lifesaving skills to give a victim time for medical professionals to get to them.

This is a certificate course taught by the Canadian College of Emergency Medical Services in partnership with Tip of Spear.
